Having gone to authorities with her suspicions, Hanimov agreed to go undercover and, wearing a wire, she went alone into a warehouse to try to prove that New York State Supreme Court Judge Gerald Garson was corrupt. A taped conversation with Nissim Elmann, the judge's confederate, was enough evidence to have the Brooklyn District Attorney grant permission to place a hidden camera in Judge Garson's chambers. Prosecutors caught Judge Garson on videotape taking a gift for legal advice, giving a lawyer advice on how to write a legal memo on a case before him, and accepting a $1,000 referral fee. Judge Garson will go on trial next fall; Nissim Elmann will be tried next week. Hanimov's case has led to the creation of a new commission to reform divorce court. Includes footage of Judge Judy Sheindlin addressing the commission. (C: Lesley Stahl - Sr. P: Katie Boyle - P: Patti Aronofsky, Mead Stone) No individual segment titles were used in this episode. - 07/05/05 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Ghosts Of El Segundo" - in July 1957 Richard Phillips and Milton Curtis, two young police officers on a routine stop in the Los Angeles, CA suburb of El Segundo, were gunned down by a man who, unknown to the police, had just committed robbery and rape at a nearby lover's lane. With only a fingerprint and the belief that one of the officer's bullets hit the killer, investigators searched for more than 45 years for the man who murdered two of their own. Important clues, including the gun used in the murders, were uncovered but almost 3,000 suspects were checked, all leading to dead ends. Two things helped police to crack the case: a call in 2002 from a woman who identified her uncle as the murderer and the use of forensic technology unavailable at the time of the crimes. Finally, investigators were able to track down the killer -- Gerald Mason -- an unsuspecting 69-year-old family man living in Columbia, S.C. Having pled guilty to murder, Mason was sentenced to prison and will be eligible for parole in 2017. Includes an interview with Darren R. Levine, Deputy District Attorney of Los Angeles County as well as other officers who were involved in the case. Police searched for Cruz for ten months until evidence finally pointed to Dean Faiello, a childhood friend of the missing woman. Faiello, an openly gay college drop-out who posed as a doctor, is thought to have treated Cruz for a mouth infection the day she vanished. In February 2004, acting on a tip from Faiello's former lover, Greg Bach, authorities found Cruz's body stuffed in a suitcase and buried in the cement in the garage of Faiello's former home in Newark, N.J. Eleven months after Maria Cruz was reported missing, Faiello, already facing charges for practicing medicine without a license, was apprehended in Costa Rica and arrested for murder. Includes an interview with Faiello who was diagnosed as HIV-positive and who remains, without any medical treatment, in a Costa Rican prison awaiting extradition proceedings. - 07/09/05 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Who Murdered The Rock Star?" (10:00-11:00pm) - On the morning of July 6, 1993, Mia Zapata's body was found raped and strangled to death on a deserted Seattle street. A lead singer in a popular local band called "The Gits," Zapata was about to start a national tour and was on the verge of signing a record contract. Police conducted an exhaustive investigation, but ultimately came up with few leads and little evidence. A decade later, Seattle's cold case squad, made up of detectives Richard Gagnon and Greg Mixsell, reopened the Zapata murder investigation and with new forensic technology were able to pinpoint the murderer, Jesus Mezquia, through DNA evidence found on Zapata's body. A jury convicted Mezquia of first-degree murder and he was sentenced to 37 years in prison. (C: Harold Dow - Sr. P: Peter Schweitzer - P: Paul F. Ryan) (Edited version of "Who Murdered The Rock Star?" OAD: 05/15/04) No individual segment titles were used in this rebroadcast. (OAD: 01/08/05)

- 07/22/05 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Rescued From The Shadows" (09:00-10:00P) - 48 HOURS infiltrated the billion dollar business of trafficking in human sex slaves to reveal how easy it is in the 21st Century to purchase a woman and bring her to the United States. Correspondent Peter Van Sant's investigation includes a report on Bucharest, Romania, one of several former Soviet bloc nations that have become hotspots for modern-day slave traders. Many of the girls are lured overseas with the promise of a good job, others are simply abducted. Working with Iana Matei, the director of Reaching Out Romania, Van Sant rescued "Nicoleta," a 17-year-old girl. Also explored are the cases of "Olga," a young woman trapped in a sex slave trafficking ring run by a Russian named Alexander Rashovsky; and a young girl kidnapped by members of the Carreto family of Tlaxcala, Mexico. 48 HOURS (continued)

07/23/05 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Right Or Wrong" (10:00-11:00P)- Susan Wright, a 27-year-old stay-at-home mother from Houston, Texas stabbed her husband, Jeff, 193 times. She claims she was a victim of domestic abuse and that on Jan. 13, 2003, her husband attacked her with a knife and she fought back in self-defense. Prosecutors charged that she was a cold blooded killer who lured her husband to bed with the promise of sex, tied him up and then brutally murdered him. They questioned why it took Susan five days to report the crime; why she buried Jeff's body in the backyard; and why she tried to clean up evidence of the death. A jury found Susan Wright guilty of murder and sentenced her to 25 years in prison. Includes interviews with: Susan's sister, Cindy Stewart; the victim's father, Ron Wright and his brother, Ron Wright Jr.; prosecutor Kelly Seigler; and attorneys for the defense Neal Davis and Richard "Racehorse" Haynes. (C: Richard Schlesinger - P: Marc Goldbaum, Paul LaRosa, Jenna Jackson) (Sr. P: "Right Or Wrong": Katie Boyle) No individual segment titles were used in this rebroadcast. (OAD: 04/24/04)

07/30/05 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Secrets Of The Well"- reports on two separate unsolved murders with strange similarities, both solved by Georgia criminal investigator Clay Bryant:
1) a report on the murder case of Gwendolyn Moore, a 30-year-old mother whose body was pulled from a well in August 1970. Gwendolyn's husband, Marshall, immediately came under suspicion. Moore, who passed a lie detector test, was not thoroughly investigated at the time because of connections to the local police department. After 30 years Bryant found enough evidence to charge Marshall Moore with the murder of his wife. He will go on trial on March 28, 2005.
2) In 1987, Fred Wilkerson, a small town fire chief and 49-year-old father, seemingly vanished. Bryant determined that the prime suspect was Wilkerson's ex-lover, Connie Quedans. At the time of the disappearance the estranged couple was involved in a property dispute. Bryant unearthed evidence and Wilkerson's body was found in Quedan's well. Connie Quedans was found guilty of murder and sentenced to life in prison. (C: Susan Spencer - Sr. P: Anthony Batson - P: Marc Goldbaum, Katherine Davis, Gayane Keshishyan) (OAD: 03/05/05)

Three and a half years after the accident she was tried and found guilty of two counts of vehicular homicide and on May 10, 2004 she was sentenced to fifteen years in prison. In October 2004 two new witnesses came forward claiming that Mary Hill was not speeding just before the crash. Despite their testimony the judge denied Hill's request for a new trial. The winner will be much more than a good speller, but truly a young master of the English language. This special takes place at the final competition which was held at Walt Disney World with the Today Show's Al Roker as host. The special featured the Top 10 contestants and Readers Digest provided all the questions and answers.
- 5) "Teen Kid News" was preempted on July 24 and rescheduled on July 31st 11:30 AM-12:00 PM. It was also preempted on August 14th and rescheduled on August 13th 12:00-12:30 PM.
